

Raza Unida in Texas goes statewide

By ANTONIO CAMERO and TANK BARRERA
 SAN ANTONIO, Texas—A Raza Unida Party state convention held here Oct. 20 voted to organize a statewide party and to work for statewide status in 1972. The day involved a discussion of the party as opposed to the strict legal requirements to be seated according to the Texas election code. The gathering was made up of 42 delegates from various counties. A credentials committee carefully checked all delegations to make sure that they had held the necessary precinct and county caucuses and had
